

FOR PRESIDENT,
BENJAMIN HARRISON
OF INDIANA.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,
LEVI P. MORTON
OF NEW YORK.

WORTHLESS COURTS.

One Simon Hamburg robbed a rancher in San Francisco of $19,500 cash.

He was convicted and sentenced to 35 years in the penitentiary. He appealed his case to the Supreme court of the State and was released on $7,500 bail.

After putting up cash bail he has a clear $12,000 left and can skip the country at any time.

Mrs. Kellogg the vile procuress who makes merchandise of bodies of little children pays $2,000 cash bail and skips out.

No wonder the people of California are beginning to have an honest contempt for its courts.

Whether the Judges are venal, scoundrelly or stupid is the question which perplexes everybody. One thing certain they are absolutely worthless.

A Blackguard Cornered.

Stephen Maybell made the insulting remark last night during his speech that "the only sword General Harrison ever drew was at a raffle." This remark was noted and commented upon by a large number of old veterans present. After the meeting, Maybell was blustering around the hotel telling what he didn't know about politics, when a gentleman went up to him, begging his pardon for intruding, and said that he had listened to his (Maybell's) speech and now desired a few words with him. "I am a stranger here, just from Indiana."

"I am an old soldier, and saw General Harrison carried from the field of Resaca, and, sir, I denounce your statement as untrue, and would ask you where you were when General Harrison was fighting the battle of America?"

"Well," says Maybell, "O! was in Ireland."

"Just as I thought," said the stranger, probably waiting for the $50,000 that Levi P. Morton sent to assist the starving people there. Bahl! such men as you are a disgrace to the country," and the incensed stranger strode away followed by the plaudits of the onlookers.

—John P. Irish, editor of the Alta, is a manly fellow. When he is not discussing the tariff or upholding certain Democratic heresies, he is a fair, honest advocate of truth, just all right. Referring to the "dollar a day" falsehood, he says: "Mr. Harrison expresses his proper indignation of the campaign lie to the effect that he had said, 'A dollar a day and sow-belly is good enough for a working man.' Every intelligent man, knew it to be a lie. It was a palpable, plain and apparent lie, and therefore with but little power to do harm."

—W. S. Pierce, the nephew of the late Vice-President Hendricks, says that "Harrison will carry Indiana by at least 8,000 majority." As Mr. Pierce was always a Democrat up to a few days ago, and a leader in his party in the Hoosier State, his opinion on this subject is probably worth something. Still the Indiana Republicans ought to be able to get a bigger majority for Harrison than 8,000.

—The average annual wheat crop of the United States is only thirteen bushels to the acre. This is small compared with that of England, where the average is about twenty-nine bushels, owing to more thorough cultivation and the use of manures. But the American farmer makes more money than his British cousin.

—Reno has picked out a legislative delegation this year that means business. Bill Thompson and Beck are both men who let no grass grow under their feet and they will be here to fight Carson in the interest of Reno.
